

Unit 4.2 - Settling Thickening & Unit 4.3 Drying Beds

Mbaye Mbéguéré: Dr Mbaye Mbéguéré holds a PhD in Environmental Sciences. As a Biologist, he is specialized in Water and Sanitation. He conducted research on CWs from the perspective of reuse of treated wastewater in urban agriculture. His research has also received award in 1999 of the "Grand Prix du Président de la République du Sénégal pour les Sciences". From December 2006 to December 2011, he appointed as project manager at the Swiss Federal Institute for Aquatic Science and Technology (Eawag) where he coordinated research activities on faecal sludge in Senegal and Burkina Faso. Since January 2012, Dr. Mbéguéré is the National Coordinator of the program for the structuring of the fecal sludge market for the benefit of poor households in Dakar, funded by Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. In addition, Mr. Mbéguéré conducts several educational activities around the world (Dakar University, University of Nouakchott, UNITAR, AgroParisTech, etc..).