

Unit 4.4 - Co-treatment with FS

Carlos Manuel Lopez Vazquez: Carlos is an Associate Professor of Sanitary Engineering at UNESCO-IHE Institute for Water Education. He holds a BSc. degree (Civil Engineer) and MSc. degree (cum laude) on Water Sciences (Specialty on Wastewater Treatment) from the Faculty of Engineering, Autonomous University of the State of Mexico, in Toluca, Mexico. In 2009, he received his doctoral degree on Environmental Biotechnology (cum laude) from Delft University of Technology and UNESCO-IHE Institute for Water Education. For outstanding academic achievement, he has been awarded different prizes, grants and scholarships. During his professional career and besides being involved in research and education at MSc and PhD-level, he has also taken part in different consultancy projects for both public and private sector concerning municipal and industrial wastewater treatment systems.